Flerce Fighting in Montenegro Follows Bombardment in the Balkans.

ANGLO-FRENCH PERIL

Serbs and Montenegrins in Retreat-Mackensen Army Advances.

PARIS. Dec. 7 .- A second conference of the allies' war council, with representatives from all the entente nations present, was held at the war office today.

ATHENS, Dec. 7 .- Fierce fighting in northeastern Montenegro and a sudden assault by the Bulgarians against the right wing of the French army, marked the renewal of important actions in the Balkans today.

The city of Ipek, largest in eastern Montenegro, is about to fall to the Austrians, according to advices received here. After holding the enemy in check for forty-eight hours by valiant resistance, the Serbs and Montenegrins are reported in retreat, assailed on their right flank by bands of Albanians.

Fear For Anglo-French.

Whether the Bulgarian onslaughts against the French mark the beginning of an effort to throw the allies back to Saloniki, it is too early to determine. Lack of definite information regarding the position of Field Marshal Mackensen's main army adds to the anxiety felt in some quarters over the position of the Anglo-French forces. Mackensen, it is believed, may be preparing to hammer the expeditionary forces back across the Greek border in one mighty orash.

Result In Doubt.

The Bulgarian attack was preceded by violent bombardment of the French poaitions near Valandovi. The infantry onslaughts were launched on Sunday night. The result of the fighting is in Arrical of fresh Anglo-French con-tingents at the allied front is reported today.

CARDINALS TALK OF PEACE SUGGESTIONS

Pope Benedict Plans to Make Vaughn Class Holds Vatican Clearing House For ldeas.

ROME Dec. 7 -That Pope Benedict hopes to make the Vatican a clearing house for peace ideas through which the war may soon be ended, is the conclusion drawn from the allocution delivered by his holiness at the opening of the secret consistory.

The Pope pointed the way to a pessible peace agreement by suggesting an exchange of views by the nations at war. This method of arriving at peace, he said, had been tried and found satisfactory in similar circum-

No medium through which these peace ideas might be transmitted was men-tioned by the Pontiff. But the general interpretation is that Pope Benedict interpretation is that Pope Benedict plans to employ the whole organization of the church in an effort to bring the warring powers into agreement.

Pope Benedict's suggestions already have borne fruit. Before the cardinals gathered in conclave yesterday peace talk is understood to have passed between Cardinals Hartmann of Cologne and cardinals from the allied countries. With the papal sanction it is believed there will be nore informal conversations during the week. When the prelates return to their homes each will be in a position to convey to his government the peace views of the others.
